THE WESTIN KUALA LUMPUR ONLY OFFERS EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES VIA www.starwoodhotels.com/westin/careers AND www.starwoodhotels.jobs

It has come to the attention of The Westin Kuala Lumpur hotel that individuals or companies have been contacting people with false offers of employment through various websites and email addresses. These employment opportunities are not legitimate.

Employment fraud happens when individuals are sent false offers of employment with the sender's goal of extorting money from the individual. Please note that Starwood does not ask job applicants for money or payments in any form; protect yourself by never giving money to any person in connection with an application for a job with Starwood or one of our hotels.

Starwood is not associated with employment fraud, the individuals generating the fraud, or the websites used. We encourage any individuals who believe that they have received a false offer of employment (including e-mails, telephone calls and offers from this website) to contact the local authorities.
